U.S. Rep. Stephanie Herseth Congressional Report February, 2006

Private Property Rights

Recently, I was proud to sponsor a bill that will allow	South Dakotans to buy back up to 13,775 ac
The bill was crafted in response to a now defunct irrigation	plan authorized in the Flood Control A
Because the project envisioned decades ago has been	long abandoned, there is no reason for th
Last year I worked on legislation to prevent governments	from using eminent domain to favor one
Passage of this bill will be a victory for private property	rights, the local tax-base and, importantly,
The hearing included testimony from a South Dakotan,	Darla Pollman Rogers, who has represen
The Pierre Canal and Blunt Reservoir Project will never be restarted and yet, the federal g	